SALVATION ARMY HOSTS GOLF FUNDRAISER TO BENEFIT YOUNG PEOPLE IN NEED

Seventh annual "Hope Fore Kids" funds programs for children, teens

- WHO: The Salvation Army Metropolitan Division, corporate sponsors, individual donors
- WHAT: "Hope Fore Kids" Golf Classic fundraiser featuring lunch, contests, silent auction, dinner and, of course, a day of golfing at a Top-100 course
- WHEN: Tuesday, August 17, 2010
- WHERE: The Glen Club, 2901 W. Lake Avenue, Glenview, IL
- WHY: One of The Salvation Army's highest priorities is providing services that help nurture the love of learning in children. The Army helps children of all ages, and especially children from families in need, by providing them with a positive, stimulating environment in which to learn and a wide range of educational opportunities.

The Salvation Army is a leading provider of Head Start programs designed to give pre-schoolers a strong foundation for learning, and is one of Chicago's largest providers of music instruction for children. The Army also offer high-quality day care, before and after-school activities, summer camps, character development classes, leadership training, tutoring, computer training, and more.

The Salvation Army's programs for children continue to be highly effective — strengthening bodies, providing safe havens from the streets and offering the educational and program support to help secure a brighter future for all children.
