For nearly 30 years, The Salvation Army Metropolitan Division has hosted a holiday party for senior citizens living in the Greater Chicago area. Seniors will be charged for the event which will feature food, gifts and entertainment provided by The Salvation Army staff. Attendees must have their own transportation.

Since many senior citizens live alone, The Salvation Army's annual senior Christmas party, like other Army programming for seniors, is designed to provide seniors with companionship and activities.

The Salvation Army Metropolitan Division is the largest direct provider of social services in the State of Illinois, assisting clients in the Greater Chicago area, Northern Illinois and Northwestern Indiana. Among the programs and services provided by the Metropolitan Division are feeding programs for homeless people, children, and seniors; emergency lodging for families and individuals in crisis; disaster relief; senior housing; substance abuse rehabilitation programs; youth programs; and early childhood development services.
