About The Salvation Army PROMISE Program (Anne's House)

In September 2010, The Salvation Army opened Anne's House, a residential home for women and girls who are victims of commercial sexual exploitation and trafficking. Anne's House provides a safe, nurturing environment; long-term trauma treatment; life skills training; and education for young women ages 12-21 who are victims of sexual abuse and violence. Anne's House is one of only a few homes in the U.S. providing residential care and long-term therapeutic treatment for victims of human trafficking.

About The Salvation Army

The Salvation Army is the largest direct provider of social services to people in need in Greater Chicago. The Salvation Army Metropolitan Division serves people in need in Greater Chicago, northern Illinois and northwestern Indiana. Among the assistance provided are youth programs; early childhood development services; feeding programs for homeless adults, children and seniors; emergency lodging for families and individuals in crisis; disaster relief; senior housing; spiritual counseling and substance abuse rehabilitation programs.
