4,000 VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO HELP PACKAGE ONE MILLION MEALS FOR HAITI

(CHICAGO, IL — May 10, 2010) – The Salvation Army Metropolitan Division and Navistar, Inc. are seeking 4,000 volunteers to help package one million meals for survivors of the January earthquake in Haiti.

Volunteers will work two-hour shifts packaging meal ingredients -- rice, beans, soy protein, and 21 vitamins and minerals -- for shipment to Haiti. This is the second one million meals food packaging effort organized by the Army in Greater Chicago to benefit Haitian earthquake survivors.

The two-day event -- to be held Saturday and Sunday, May 22 and 23 – is being hosted by Navistar at 10400 W. North Avenue, Melrose Park, IL. Residents interested in donating two hours of their time on either or both days should go www.salarmychicago.org/volunteer to register. Or they can call 773-205-3636. Registration is recommended.

Volunteers are asked to bring, if they can, non-perishable food items for local people in need. The Salvation Army food pantries in Chicago and the suburbs regularly distribute groceries to area residents who are having a difficult time feeding themselves and their families.

The Salvation Army has had a presence in Haiti since 1950, with more than 700 Army officers and staff operating schools, clinics, a hospital, children's homes, and feeding programs. Since the earthquake, The Salvation Army has taken on additional responsibilities at the direction of the United Nations, which appointed the Army as a "lead agency" responsible for the care of 20,000 people living in tents near the Army's main compound in Port-au-Prince.
